GREYHAWK CEO GARY BERMAN ELECTED TO ECC BOARD

WOODBURY, NY – Gary Berman, founder, president and CEO of GREYHAWK has been elected to the board of directors of the Engineering & Construction Contracting Association (ECC). GREYHAWK is an international construction management and consulting firm headquartered on Long Island, N.Y.

Berman is a licensed professional engineer with more than 30 years of experience in structural design, construction management, dispute resolution and EPC contracting. He serves as an expert witness, mediator and arbitrator in the construction industry. He is qualified in various courts and tribunals as an expert on issues of construction and project management, steel construction and the design and construction of oil and gas facilities both upstream and downstream.

Berman is the past chairman of the board of governors of the Construction Manager Certification Institute. Previously, he served as a member of the board of directors of the Construction Management Association of America (CMAA) for seven years and is a member of its College of Fellows. On two occasions, Berman was the recipient of CMAA's Distinguished Service Award. He is the founder and former editor-in-chief of CMAA's JOURNAL of Construction Management.
