CHARLES ROMANOLI ELECTED TREASURER OF FOUNDATION

Westampton, New Jersey - Charles (Chuck) Romanoli was recently elected treasurer of the Burlington County Institute of Technology Education Foundation. Mr. Romanoli is the Chief Operating Officer of Greyhawk, an international construction-consulting firm with offices in New Jersey, New York, Texas, and the United Kingdom.

The BCIT Education Foundation was created to enhance the high quality of technical education at the Burlington County Institute of Technology. The BCIT Education Foundation raises funds to assist in enriching educational programs to benefit students of the BCIT school district. Since it was created in 1997, the BCIT Education Foundation has contributed over $211,000.00 in scholarships, grants, technology purchases, vocational club support, and community outreach donations. Two major fund raisers are sponsored by the BCIT Education Foundation each year; a Monte Carlo Night held each November and a Walk-a-Thon held each May.

Dr. Dolores Szymanski, Superintendent of Schools at BCIT said, "We are very pleased to have Chuck Romanoli as a Trustee of the BCIT Education Foundation. He brings commitment and creativity to the position of Foundation treasurer. Chuck has been a member of the Foundation for a number of years and we look forward to his leadership as a trustee of the Foundation."

Mr. Romanoli is a resident of Westampton, New Jersey.
