FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GREYHAWK CHANGES LEADERSHIP

New York, NY – Gary Berman, Principal and Chairman of the Board, is pleased to announce two new appointments. Chuck Romanoli, a Principal at GREYHAWK who previously held the position of COO has been named President/CEO. Ron Kerins, Regional Manager, has been named a Principal of the firm, bringing the total number of Principals to five.

Romanoli is a 27 year veteran of the construction industry. He joined GREYHAWK in 2001 to start its New Jersey operations. He earned an engineering degree from Rutgers University and has held senior positions at a variety of construction management firms in New Jersey. Recently, he served as President of the Mid-Atlantic Chapter of CMAA, is on the Board of Directors for Southern New Jersey Development Council and a Trustee on the Burlington County Institute of Technology Foundation.

Kerins, an architecture and engineering graduate of Temple University, has more than 26 years experience in the construction industry. He joined GREYHAWK in 2007. He has served on the National Board of Directors of CMAA for the past six years and is a former Chapter President of CMAA's Mid-Atlantic Region. Ron is an adjunct Professor with Temple and Widener Universities and serves as an Instructor with the Engineer's Club of Philadelphia. He is current president of the Temple University College of Engineering Alumni Board and recently was appointed to the ACE Mentor Program of Eastern Pennsylvania Board of Directors.

GREYHAWK is an award-winning construction project management and consulting firm specializing in providing services to facility owners and stakeholders involved in major private and public construction projects.
