RONALD C. KERINS, JR., CCM, JOINS GREYHAWK'S MOORESTOWN TEAM AS SENIOR EXECUTIVE

WOODBURY, NY – March 14, 2007—Gary Berman, President and CEO of GREYHAWK announces that Ron Kerins has joined the firm as a Senior Executive in the Moorestown, New Jersey office. Kerins is a construction professional with more than 22 years of experience in all phases of construction management, from design through occupancy. He will be responsible for regional business development in the private sector. His duties will also include development of business in the Pennsylvania market, a targeted growth area for GREYHAWK. Ron brings special expertise in representing owners as a construction consultant in the areas of project and program management, value engineering, contract administration, cost control, scheduling and construction claims. He also serves as a director on the national board of the Construction Management Association of America.

Kerins holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Architecture and a Bachelor of Science degree in Civil and Construction Engineering Technology from Temple University, as well as a Master's of Business Administration degree with focus in Leadership Studies from Penn State University. He is Vice President of the Temple College of Engineering Alumni Board and also serves on the college's industrial advisory board. He currently teaches various courses in construction and engineering curriculums for the Philadelphia Engineers Club, Temple University, Widener University, Lorman Education, as well as for the CMAA Professional Review Course. An active participant with the ACE Mentor Program, he has also completed studies in LEED Certification.
